Hello Kim,

I have compiled feedback from folks here at Suncor as well and I have also been participating in the task force with CAPP. The only comment different than what has or will be provided by the task force is the following:

TABLE 2 – FIRST AIDERS AND MEDICS

Should this table not match the Newfoundland and Labrador Offshore Marine Installations and Structures Occupational Health and Safety Transitional Regulations? See schedule 5, page 119 of regulations. It states different requirements for 41 to 60 and more than 60.

Regards,

Chris Drover

Subject: Atlantic OHS Initiative - Phase 3 Stakeholder Engagement

Good morning,

On behalf of the Governments of Canada, Nova Scotia and Newfoundland and Labrador, we would like to invite you to the fourth multi-stakeholder engagement session (Phase 3) with respect to the development of new Occupational Health and Safety regulations for the Canada-Nova Scotia and the Canada-Newfoundland and Labrador offshore areas.

Governments are working to develop Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) regulations that will replace the transitional regulations that came into force on December 31, 2014 with the introduction of Part III.1 of the Accord Acts. As part of the process, we have been holding sessions with stakeholders on draft policy intent in advance of developing the regulatory text, so that comments may be taken into account in the drafting of the new regulations.

The Phase 3 sessions will focus on the following regulatory topics:

- OHS Management System & Program
- Workplace Committees and Coordinators
- Training
- Personal Conduct
- Employee Wellness
- Fatigue Management
- Emergency Preparedness and Response
- Blasting
- Hazardous Substances
- Personal Protective Equipment
- Passengers in Transit
- Compressed Gas Storage and Handling
- Rechargeable Batteries
- First Aid
- Incident Reporting and Investigation
- Record Retention

As a follow-up to this invitation, we will send a draft policy intention document on those topics as far ahead of the engagement sessions as possible. You may provide any questions or comments you have on the policy intent document ahead of the sessions.

The sessions will take place at the following times and locations:

Stakeholder engagement/consultation sessions will take place periodically on various elements of the OHS Regulations. We will keep you informed as future sessions are scheduled.

We look forward to seeing you at the upcoming sessions.

Sincerely,

Kim Phillips
